

Confused About Mad Cow?

The chief animal scientist at the USDA* says “the U.S. consumer has every reason to remain confident in the safety of U.S. beef.”

Harvard University
scientists say the
risk to Americans is “as close to zero
as you can get.”

So why are professional activists spreading
fear and hysteria?
