Them PETA niggas is bonkers yo.....

We on the last leg of this tour.....and a nigga really ain't had a chance to address that OLD ASS interview them PETA niggas put up on they website a few weeks ago....but maaaaaan.....

Them niggas is bonkers fam.....and I don't endorse them niggas IN ANY WAY SHAPE OR FORM.....

Basically, me and Pooh went for a while where we had both stopped eating meat...and while we were vegetarian, PETA asked us to do an interview at the Rock The Bells festival....niggas was like, 'Cool...."

We ain't know them niggas was gon' run the shit TWO YEARS LATER after niggas done fell off the wagon.....didn't they read my waing blog?

Plus, my problems with PETA run waaaaay deeper than that. To me, they come across as rich white folk who are privileged enough to fight a 'struggle' that the average everyday working person could really give a fuck about. Meat is murder? Get the fuck outta here with that bullshit! Meat ain't murder, its what's for dinner! Plus, any organization that attempts to compare animal abuse to HUMAN SLAVERY can eat a dick.....for real, for real....

I guess I've never been much of an animal sympathizer.....truth be told, I don't even like pets.....never have really.....I never even dated girls who had pets.....I thought them hoes was nasty for living with a fo' legged creature.....Its not that I want to just pointlessly slaughter animals or anything....its just that when I see a chicken, I don't think 'oh, poor little helpless creature of God.' I'm thinkin' 'Fo' piece waing dinner, niggas!"

I guess my indifference towards animals goes back to my chilehood....I remember back in the day when we had a German shepherd named King.....mattafact, I think every Black family in the 70's had one.....anyways, we usta do that nigga Kang so foul yo.....he could NEVER come in the house, rain, sleet, or snow, 'cause Grandma wasn't bout to let that nigga scratch all the plastic off her good living room furniture....and when my Granddaddy would cook pigs feet, we usta feed that nigga all the leftover bones and gristle.....its no wonder that nigga Kang died of heartworms.....if they had a Department of Social Services for animals, they woulda been reported our asses.....

So you can imagine the shock when I went over my white friend Trevor's house for the first time and saw the way they treated their dog, Braxton Kennedy (YES, they had a first and last name for the nigga...) Maaaaaaaaaaaaan.....they treated that nigga like he was really part of they family.....usta feed that nigga from the dinner table and let him kiss 'em all in the mouth and shit....I'd come from Trevor's house with dog fur all over my Members Only jacket, 'cause they let the nigga Braxton sleep on the couch..... maaaaan...that shit was disgusting.....but them white folks meant well.....

It was then I realized that Black people should never be allowed to own pets, 'cause we don't take care of 'em yo.....not even fish.....shit, when I see a fish, my nigga senses automatically go off and tell me to start lookin for a bag of corn meal to fry his ass up....

All in all, I guess I'm just one of those strange people that actually put human life above the lives of Kang and Braxton Kennedy....I'm sorry yo, but in a world where there are STARVING HUMANS, a store like PetCo should not exist.....fuck that.....who gives a fuck about designer dog collars when its niggas out here who can't find a job? Americans ought to be shame o'they goddamn selves....

So, if anybody from PETA reads this blog, feel free to take me and Pooh's pit'cha off yo website.

I think you motherfuckers are crazy, and it's a box a waings from Hooters that's callin' my name....

lmao...I find what your saying true, but still I'm guilty of a few things here...lol..one I don't eat meat and haven't for five years..but I'm not a peta freak as the reason I stop eating meat is for health and my paranoid belief that thats the way the government is out to get us through the meat...lol...and I've never really cared for meat when I did eat it... as for meat being murder...its a way of life somebody gotta die.. better them than a nigga eating me like dahmer righ, cause honestly plants are living things too and if I had to chance to do a real life duck hunt..I'd be shooting birds left and right...still..I do have a pet dog, and we treat him nice, give him doggie treat, by him coats for the cold weather..but unlike white people that I know....he will never touch my bed, couch, step foot in my kitchen or jump on me, as for after all he is still a dog... as for peta, I guess when your rich you gotta find something to bitch about...

Yo...Peta came up to my school with big 5X8 posters with those inflammatory images. By Wednesday, there was ketchup and mustard and a slew of screaming black folks to reckon with. It was disgusting. Peta is full of shit...they say animals aren't our to own...eat...etc...but them ninjas own dogs...and their parents and relatives are on medication that was tested on animals. I am for the ethical treatment of animals and all...but you cannot compare a system of oppresion to a system of lunch...they aren't the same.

AHHH ... you are a fool ... but damnit if you aren't right.

we had a dog once .... her name was Baby. and we dropped her ass off in the country, cuz her ass was gettin annoying. smh ... i have to agree, black folks should not have pets. and about that pet smart shit ... man - if my mama doesn't have food in the fridge, she's got some food for her DAMNED FISH! people starvin, but you spendin money on fish food, stess coat, pretty little shells, and big ass tanks. that shit is WAAAACK!

i say, if you're going to cut out meat, do it for health, not cuz you want to save a chicken's life. i tried to be vegetarian when i was about ... 13 or 14. shit lasted a week. i was cool ... then mama fried up some chops ... i basically said "man, fuck that".

PETA knows they're wrong for that shit. they're tryin to be funny ... you know they are!

now ... go get some corn meal ... & let's have a fuckin fish fry. imma fry up some chicken, too.

But on the whole eating meat thing, I gotta say I do feel somewhat bad when I eat that cheeseburger, or that chicken, but then again, I can't give the shit away cause it tastes so damn good, ahha, anyways stay up my nigga.

PETA is a terrorist organization. They support the freedom of all animals (thats right not even kept as pets) at ANY COST. I watched a documentary where this dude who bombed a vet or some shit that was a high ranking peta member and he had just received a gang of cheese from peta right before the bombing

theyre crazy

if that's all it takes to be a terrorist, i guess the FBI is a terrorist organization for all those activists they set up to get killed back in the 60s and 70s. they used to pay informants "lots of cheese" who then happened to murder black panthers (or in the case of fred hampton, provided cops with a detailed floor plan of a panthers house including where fred slept so cops could walk in and shoot him....after the informant slipped him a mickey so he would sleep through the raid). hmmm.

[\[Reply to this\]](#)

LMAO!!! Man, I was gonna ask if you guys had heard about that article...

I was just talkin' to my people about it over the weekend. I kept saying, "I hope they don't find LB's Myspace blog, cuz their feelings will be hurt." And I know for a fact that you guys went to Harold's Chicken after you opened for Dilated @ Park West in Chicago earlier this month...so I knew something was up when someone sent me the link to that PETA website and saw you guys posted up there like, "Yeah...I said it!"

I have a problem with PETA, mainly because about 90% of the content that they distribute is propaganda, on some Hitler-slandering-the Jews type isht. And I love how almost everyone on their homepage is Black...like they've bought into the whole hip hop/Black culture = automatic cool points mindset and are using that to promote their extremely biased, and extremely slanted point of view.

"Get some rappers to talk about vegetarianism and cruelty against animals... the kids love that shit. They speak so well! Who knew?"

I mean, maybe if they seemed more credible in their output of info or didn't employ scare tactics and such a "for-us-or-against-us" attitude, I'd at least give them a minute to hear them out. They come off as really condescending and obnoxious in my opinion, like vegetarianism is the only way we should live...and if you do anything to the contrary, you're a heathen and a discredit to the human race. Get the fuck outta here with that bullshit...

All I'm sayin' is, if vegetarianism/veganism is so healthy, why are there fat vegetarians and vegans? I know I'm not the only one who's had some chubby mofo be on some, "I'm a vegetarian" and then you try to hide the o.O look on your face after they tell you. I don't care what your eating habits are, being overweight isn't healthy whether you put away a porterhouse steak every night or if you eat grass and wheat germ for every meal. And I know of some people's health deteriorating when they became vegetarian. It's just not for everybody, period.

I'm not saying people shouldn't be vegetarians or vegans...if you're a grown-ass man or woman, you can do whatever the hell you want. All I'm saying is, don't treat people who choose NOT to be vegetarian/vegan like they're cavemen. And don't expect people to respond in a positive manner if you're constantly talking down to them and ramming exaggerated, self-aggrandizing, self-righteous, erroneous bullshit down their throats. If you want to be effective in your mission, provide people with TRUTHFUL information that is free from bias (or as close to it as you can get) that examines ALL POSSIBLE SIDES of an argument and let them decide for themselves. You'd think it'd be simple, but people have a way of complicating things that don't need to be complicated.
